

Anthony Devon Woods

March 14, 2026

Anthony Devon Woods was born on January 13, 1977, in Florence, South Carolina, to the late Harold Eugene Woods. He departed this earthly life on March 14, 2026, in Charleston, South Carolina.

Anthony, affectionately known as “Bird,” was educated in the public schools of Timmonsville, South Carolina. He was a hardworking and dependable man who approached every task with diligence and pride. Whenever someone needed a helping hand, Anthony was always there—willing, kind, and ready to serve.

As a child, he attended Mount Zion United Methodist Church, where he faithfully served as an acolyte.

Those left to cherish his precious memories include his loving mother, Ruby Woods; his grandmothers, Dorothy Woods Perkins; and Isabella Carroway; his devoted wife, Terri Woods; his children, Jaquel Woods, Malik Woods, and stepdaughter Harmony Woods, all of Timmonsville, South Carolina; Victoria Smith of Darlington, South Carolina, Kamani Washington and Anthony Woods, Jr., of Florence, South Carolina; three beloved grandchildren of Darlington, South Carolina; his sisters, Erika McDaniel of Timmonsville, South Carolina, and Antoinette Lamar Harper of Florence, South Carolina; his brother, Ricky McDaniel of Florence, South Carolina; a special aunt, Patricia (Henry) Nero of Timmonsville, South Carolina; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.
