

Bertha Mae Williams

September 1, 2021

Bertha Mae Williams was born on January 12, 1960 in Sardis, South Carolina. She was the daughter of Barbara Jean Williams-Scott and the late California McKithen. She departed this life on September 1, 2021 for her eternal rest at the Sentara Healthcare in Virginia Beach, VA.

She attended Brockington Elementary school in SC. As a teenager she moved to New York where she attend JHS 198 and Beach Channel High School in Far Rockaway, NY.

She became an CNA and worked for Promenade nursing home for several years.

After residing in New York for so many years she moved to Virginia Beach, VA where she lived her life till her rest.

Bertha Mae was loved by many and will sadly be missed. She loved to dance, loved music, enjoyed being around family, friends and mostly she always enjoyed being with her children. She always knew how to brighten up a room and make you laugh. Even in her time of pain she wore an incredible smile.

She leaves to cherish loving memories: her mother Evangelist Barbara Scott and Stepfather Ronald Scott of Norfolk, VA.: four daughters, Sherry (Danny) Nisbett of Brooklyn, New York, Starleana (Charles) Mack of Norfolk, VA, Deborah Williams of Newport News, VA and Sierra Williams of Virginia Beach, VA; two sons, Dele Williams and Darron Fields both of Virginia Beach VA; five grandchildren, Daniel (DJ), Matthew, Serenidy, Savannah and Christian; two sisters, Dorothy Mae (Danny) Drummond of Tennessee, and Evelyn Brunson of Georgia; six brothers, Calvin and Larry Mckithen of New York, Albert Jr Brunson of Georgia, Ronald Scott Jr. of Florida, Marcus (Janelda) and Omar (Jessica) Scott of Norfolk, VA and Ashani Scott of South Dakota; two Aunts, Carolyn (Alan)Stewart of New York and Mary Alice Green of South Carolina; one uncle Joseph Williams of New York; a host of nephews, nieces, cousins and friends whom she thought the world of and loved so very much.

Previous Events

Graveside Service

SEP 11. 11:00 AM (ET)

New Zion Baptist Church Cemetery
2826 Cale Yarborough Hwy
Timmonsville, SC 29161