“ It's hard to put into words the many of memories that flood my mind when I think of Carlton . We spent 10 years of friendship together, sharing our lives, our dreams, and the challenges that life threw our way. He wasn't just my friend he was family .
Now, as I navigate life without him, the void is unreal . There's an emptiness in my heart, . Yet, I find peace in the memories we created together, the lessons he taught me about love and resilience, and the way he poured so much of himself into me and my family. Carlton will be greatly miss . Forever in my heart ❤️
