

Carnell Jackson

April 20, 2021

Carnell Demetrius Jackson entered into eternal rest on Tuesday April 20, 2021. He was born on March 13, 1987 to the late Joanne Williams and the late James Jackson. He was educated in the public schools of Florence County.

“Poke” as he was affectionately called, believed in the Lord. He loved praising God through music. He also loved spending time with family and talking with his friends on the phone. He also loved riding out with cousins he touched the lives of everyone he came in contact with.

He was preceded in death by his mother Joanne and father James.

He leaves to cherish his precious memories: two brothers, Endesha Williams of Newark, New Jersey, and James Williams of Florence, South Carolina; a special sister that was dear to him, Jameka Jackson of the home; a special Aunt that raised him as her own, Jennifer Williams; four other aunts, Minnie Pearl Bryant, Augustine Williams, Mary Williams and Johnnie Mae Williams; a special cousin whom he considered a brother Leon Williams; a special nephew whom he loved Adam Williams; two special nephews, James Jr., and Daiquan Williams; a host of other relatives and friends.
