

Clara Redden

June 3, 2025

Mother Clara Redden, the daughter of the late Claramont Washington and the late Maggie Sumter, transitioned with the Lord on June 3, 2025, surrounded by her loved ones, and took flight to her new home.

A true Virtuous Woman for her Price is far above Rubies! Mother Redden a woman of noble character and skill, full of attributions, including her wisdom, diligence, and care for her family and community. Always demonstrating compassion and love. She loved God with all her heart. She was one of the humblest people to be known. She was the loving wife of the late Lucious Redden Jr.

She was educated in the Florence County School system. Her occupation was domestic work.

She found Christ at an early stage in her life and joined Howard Chapel Freewill Baptist Church. She served in several capacities, Usher board, Vice President of the Missionary, the Senior Choir and the Founder of the Willing Workers Choir and the financial recording secretary for the Freewill Baptist Convention. With high honors as the Mother of the Howard Chapel Freewill Baptist Church.

She was preceded in death by her Parents and her Husband, a daughter Claretta Bright, a son Donny L. Redden, a great grandson Avery McArthur, a sister Mamie (John) Pate and a brother John Henry Sumter.

She leaves to cherish her loving Memories and Legacy, five daughters Apostle Shirley Dowling, Delores (Hezekiah) McCray, Vickie Redden, Brenda Bradley, Maggie Redden and one son, Ronald Redden, son-in-law Charles Bright.

Twenty-seven grandchildren and 28 great grandchildren and three great-great grandchildren. One brother Calvin (Pastor Angelena) Sumter, one sister Sherby Jones, one sister-in law Linda Sumter, and a host of Nieces and Nephews and loved ones and Howard Chapel Freewill Baptist Church family.
