“ Sis Claudia, was a blessing to a prayerline. That God, mandated. She was faithful too it. On the last night of her life. She came on the prayer line, string and peaceful. I Loved her as soon as I came in contact with her. We was believing God, for a miracle. God, told me she got her miracle. She was still saying Jesus, with her last breath. We, I missed her so much. I pray for strength, to husband, and daughters. Gone but never forgotten. Blessing to u all.

“ Growing up, I have vivid memories of Claudia totally holding court. As her younger cousin, I was drawn to her. She was so vivacious, sweet, hilarious and loving. When she entered the room, she energized it. We used to have dance contests as kids and her encouraging voice was always egging on, even those of us without rhythm. She was always uplifting and encouraging. Her beautiful children, my cousins Ashley and Lexi are her wonderful legacy. I see Claudia’s fun-loving and adventuresome spirit in them. sending prayers of comfort, ((HUGS)) & Love 🙏😊💕
