Craig Anthony Williams Jr., affectionately known as "Bugga" by his family and "Dolo" by his friends, was born on November 15, 2004, to Craig Williams Sr. and Kimberly Gunn Williams. He was the youngest of seven children and was raised in Timmonsville and South Florence, South Carolina.

Craig attended schools in Timmonsville, South Florence, and West Florence and was employed by Carolina Precision Foods. He had a deep love for music and began pursuing his passion at the age of 15. Craig often dreamed of traveling beyond South Carolina and making a name for himself through his music.

Known for his kind heart, loving spirit, and respectful nature, Craig cherished his family and especially loved spending time with his nieces and nephews. His smile, laughter, and genuine personality left a lasting impression on everyone who knew him.

Craig was preceded in death by his grandmother, Mattie Williams; his grandfather, Robert Gunn Sr.; and his uncle, Raymond "G-Man" Williams.

He leaves to cherish his memory his mother, Kimberly Williams; his father, Craig Williams Sr.; his stepfather, Antwan Fullard; his brothers, Harold Huggins, Dalvin (Tritney) Gunn, Devontae' (Shykia) Gunn, and Jahiem Samuel; his sisters, Shanell and Victoria Williams; 13 nieces and nephews; his grandmother, Emma Hickman; his godmother, Caroline McKithen; special friends, Josiah Alexander and Zyere Keith; along with a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, relatives, and friends.

Though his time with us was brief, Craig's love, music, and memory will live on forever in the hearts of those who loved him.
