

Danny Fullard

October 9, 2024

Danny Fullard, the son of late Edward and Miriam McKithen Fullard, Sr., was born October 16, 1967, in Florence, South Carolina.

"Mookie" as he was affectionately known was a graduate of Timmonsville High School class of 1986. During his lifetime he worked at Aluminum Ladder in Florence, SC, Honda of South Carolina Manufacturing in Timmonsville, SC as a manager, an Assistant Manager at IGA in Timmonsville, and an assistant manager at KJ's in Florence, Quinby, and Lexington SC. He also worked as an umpire for baseball games for Timmonsville and Florence recreations.

"Mookie" was a lifelong member of New Zion Baptist Church #1 located in Sardis, SC. He was Vice President of the Usher Board and helped around the church as needed. He was also a member of The New Morning Light Masonic Lodge #430 (Past Master).

"Mookie" loved to have fun, spend time with his family, watch and play baseball in his spare time. He was a loving, caring, and fun person to be around. When he walked in a room, all you will hear is "hey sweetheart, how you are doing". If you were having a bad day, he would find a way to make you smile before he walked away from you.

He leaves to cherish his loving and precious memories: His wife Tara Wilson

Fullard of Timmonsville, SC; four daughters, Tycia Wilson of Timmonsville, SC, Shanekka Lowery of Florence, SC, Shamian Lowery of Timmonsville, SC, and Octavia Fullard of Hartsville, SC; grandchildren Kamryn Lowery, Bryson Lowery, Kyiana Steadman, Jy'Niah Lowery, Tanayisa Thomas, Brayden Lowery, Miriecle Thomas, and Hampton Fullard; nephews Antwan Fullard, Duke Green, and Terrence Green; a niece Cassandra Fullard; a godson Min. Stephen Scott Jr; three special uncles Danver Bill Green, James McKitchen, and Donald Fullard; a sister-in-law Monique Wilson Diaz; a brother-in-law Joseph Diaz; special friend Shirley Crawford; a host of aunts, a host of special cousins, relatives, and friends.

My last time, seeing cousin Danny before his demise... He was standing on his post in the New Zion Baptist Church#1 . In the Sardis community Of Timmons ville, South Carolina. Danny was very diligent in his serving on the ushers ministry. He was very well groomed, clean cut, respectable, and very professional. He was a gentleman. He was groomed at an early age about his Christianity. You could see the faithfulness in his serving God through ,the ushers ministry. It was relevant , that Danny was working for his souls salvation. He was a descendant of many families in the New Zion Baptist Church family. The Fullard & Commander families. The Samuel & Blue , Mckeithen , Mckithen , and Strong families. His great grandmother Fronnie, Blue Mckithen was named mother of the Church, and she was also a member of the order of Eastern Stars chapter # 65 . Danny comes from a family with many men who were deacon's. Some were also ministers. He , and many of his cousins served on the ushers ministry. He loved his family, and his New Zion Baptist Church family. On July 14th 2024 , Danny awarded his cousin James Willis Mckithen a plaque in memory, and honor to the memory of our late uncle Son James. Uncle Son was an outstanding member of the Masonic post. Danny said he wanted to show Deacon James Willis Mckithen appreciation for how well Deacon Mckithen keep the church grounds groomed and beautiful alone with out help . Danny said now they can have picnic space , and recreation and not have to go away. He was so proud of this . Less than 3 months ago... since the award. We were just admiring him as a door keeper in the house of God . Although Danny endured so much pain from his accident ,his faith in God never wavered. Danny is now ushering in the spirit of God in heaven . Just as calm, and making all of God's people feel loved, and welcome. Rest in peace you were faithful, and now you will be rewarded by God ❤️👍❤️👍❤️👍

My last time seeing cousin Danny before his demise. He was standing on his post in the New Zion Baptist Church # 1 as a door keeper in the household of faith. He was a very well groomed, clean cut , polite , and respectful , soooo... professional doorkeeper. He was very proud of his New Zion Baptist Church , and he was a descendant of the Fullard, Commander , Samuel, Blue & Mckithen families. Where he grew up surrounded by many uncles who were deacon's , some were preachers, and cousins who were preachers, and pastors. His late great grandfather Revered Preston Samuel. Cousins who are / were ushers .He was brought up serving God . Danny had a meekness about himself, which appeared to be relevant that he was working out his soul's salvation . He presented his cousin Deacon James Willis McKithen a plaque in appreciation of how well he upkeep the church lawn and beautify's it . He gave it in honor, and memory of Uncle Son James, who was a strong patriarch in the church and a fella masonic member. Danny was in a lot of pain, but his faith in God never wavered. He will be remembered as a servant who made preparations, and it showed in his service to glorify God's Kingdom. Rest in peace dear cousin Danny ❤️👍❤️👍❤️👍
