

Deion Montray Wilson

June 28, 2020

Mr. Deion Montray Wilson, was born on January 17, 1995 in Florence, South Carolina. A son of Ella Ervin and Jarvis Simon, he departed this life on Sunday June 28th at Carolina Pines MUSC, Hartsville, South Carolina. Deion received his formal education at Lamar High School in the Darlington County Public School system. He attended both Evangelistic Holiness/ GRRC Darlington.

Deion, affectionately known as “Cuz” by family and friends was a loving son, father, nephew cousin and friend. He had a great spirit, he will be greatly missed by family and friends.

Deion was preceded in death by his grandmother, Jeanette Jackson of Timmonsville, South Carolina; and his grandfathers Joseph Ervin, Jr. of Lynchburg, South Carolina, and Samuel Curtis of Darlington, South Carolina.

Those who remain to cherish his precious memories are : two sons Deontray M. Wilson and Deion Montray Wilson, Jr. and their mother Deandra Durant; his mother Ella “Resa” Ervin of Lamar, South Carolina; father, Jarius (Anastacia) Simon of Darlington, South Carolina; seven brothers, Deshawn (Lydia) Wilson, Kaheem Kirkland, Da’Quann Kirkland, Rayshawn Eaddy, all of Lamar, South Carolina, Deandre (Danielle) Scott, Jarvis L. Simon, Jr., and Rodney Wingate, all of Darlington, South Carolina; three sisters, Kristin McMillan, Cortland Wingate and Alexis Simon, all of Darlington, South Carolina; grandparents, Marilyn Simon, Jeffrey (Priscilla) Simon of Timmonsville, South Carolina and Linda Curtis of Darlington, South Carolina; a special nephew Myles McMillan, a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, many other loving family members and dear friends.

Previous Events

Graveside Services

JUL 4. 11:00 AM - 12:00 PM (ET)

Evangelistic Holiness Church Cemetery
Timmonsville, SC

Tribute Wall

ES

“ Esther.willie45@hotmail.com lit a candle in memory of Deion Montray Wilson

esther.willie45@hotmail.com - July 04, 2020 at 02:26 PM