

Delois White

April 16, 2020

Delois White was born to Earl and Sarah Francis Carr, only child, on December 15, 1936, in Mt. Olive, North Carolina. Delois graduate from high school at EE Smith in Keanaville, NC. She was blessed with her first child Ronald Johnson in 1957 and then Gail Johnson in 1958 and In 1959 moved from North Carolina to Brooklyn, NY. Shortly afterwards she met and married her husband of 57 years, the late Mr. Davis White, Sr. (aka David White, Sr.). From this union two more blessings were bestowed upon them ,her daughter, Rita Francis White and son David White, Jr.

Delois raised her children in a traditional stern fashion, she held no punches! For her education was crucial, so she led her children by example. In 1971 she went on to continue her education at Medgar Evers College in Brooklyn, NY. In 1975 he received her BA and went on to work for the New York City Board of Education for 14 years. She retired and return to the south in 1989, where she lived out the rest of her life.
