

Eddie Dean Tumblin

April 10, 2026

Eddie Dean Tumblin, born on September 1, 1959, was called to his heavenly home on April 10, 2026. He was a beloved son, brother, father figure, and uncle whose life touched many with kindness, strength, and quiet dignity.

He was preceded in death by his loving parents, Mrs. Pauline Tumblin and Mr. Robert Tumblin Sr.; one sister, Mrs. Ella Mae Rivers; and six brothers, Mr. Willie King, Mr. Jesse King, Mr. Robert Tumblin Jr., Mr. John Tumblin, Mr. Marshall Tumblin, and Mr. Frank Tumblin.

Eddie leaves to cherish his memory two devoted sisters, Sena Pompey and Bertha Tumblin; one stepdaughter, Kimberly Pettigrew; and two special children he loved as his own, Ditasha and Devontae Platt; two sisters-in-law, Mary Tumblin and Sylvia Tumblin, both of Timmonsville, South Carolina; and a host of nieces, nephews, extended family, and friends who will forever hold him close in their hearts.

Though he has departed this earthly life, his love, legacy, and memories will continue to live on in all who knew and loved him.

“ Uncle Eddie Dean, just to speak of you in past tense breaks my heart. For as long as I can remember, you were always solid. The kind of uncle everyone should have had the honor of having in their lives. I loved you dearly and you loved me and mine right back, without question. I'll miss your calls. I'll miss the way your eyes would light up and you'd instantly go to smiling when you saw us. I'll miss my hot fish fresh out the grease that you'd make sure I got first at family gatherings. Your actions were genuine. You did not play about ANY of your nieces and nephews. Your presence will truly be missed by our entire family. We may not understand in this moment because we love you, but clearly God loved you best. Give daddy a big hug for me. Take your rest, Unc.
