“ Mrs. Edith will be missed not only by her immediate, extended and New Haven United Methodist Church families; but, her Lynchburg Parish family. As a member of St. Paul-Elliott, I had the honor and privilege of meeting, knowing and loving Mrs. Edith and her husband, Mr. S.D. They were strangers to no one and immediately opened their hearts and welcomed me as an integral part of their family. Mrs. Edith counseled, encouraged, mentored, supported and prayed with me and for me. She even chastised me privately, when she felt it appropriate. Mrs. Edith will truly be missed; however, God makes no mistakes and I thank Him for allowing me to benefit from her love and passion for God, family, church and others. 🙏❤️😊❤️🙏 To God Be The Glory and Rest In Peace Sweet Lady...💔😭🙏

“ Sorry to hear of the passing of Mrs. Edith. I share in your sorrow. As a member of St. Paul UM, Elliott, I knew her to be a very dedicated and faithful member of the UM church. She will be sorely missed.
