

Harry Jefferson

April 12, 2026

Harry Jefferson was born in Lee County on March 15, 1953, to the late Charlie and Ethel Mae Jefferson. He departed this life on April 12, 2026, at McLeod Hospice House in Florence, South Carolina.

Harry worked for many years as a meat cutter and later retired from a career installing chain-link fencing. He was known for his strong work ethic and dedication to his craft.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by seven siblings.

He leaves to cherish his precious memories his loving wife, Agnes Franklin Jefferson, with whom he shared 42 years of marriage; his children, Mr. Terry Lucas, Mr. Harry Lee (Mydashia) Jefferson, and Ms. Angela Jefferson; and a host of cherished family members, including nieces, nephews, grandchildren, cousins, sisters-in-law, and dear friends.
