

Harvey McElveen Jr.

March 4, 2024

Harvey McElveen, Jr. was born on August 10, 1929 in Sumter County to the late Harvey McElveen, Sr. And Mamie McAllister McElveen. He departed this life on Monday, March 4, 2024. God summoned the soul of Harvey home from labor to reward.

Harvey received his formal education in the public schools of Sumter County at St. Mark school. He was on the trustee board at St. Mark and he helped build St. Mark Church. He was an outstanding lifelong member of the St. Mark A.M. E. Church. He was an honorable and well-respected family man who worked extremely hard all of his life, but most of all he had a close relationship with the Lord. He was a farmer for many years and a carpenter, and he enjoyed moving houses.

In addition to his parents, Harvey was preceded in death by his beloved wife Joretha McElveen; four brothers and three sisters namely: Woodrow McElveen, Albert McElveen, Dan McElveen, Charles Leroy McElveen, Marie Anderson, Zenobia Jane McElveen, Almae McElveen; five sisters-in-law, Josephine McElveen, Itlean McElveen, Martha McElveen Virginia McElveen and Alberta Sowers Graham; two brothers-in-law Robert Lee Anderson of Olanta, South Carolina and Howard Sowers.

He leaves to cherish his precious memories, three sons Joenathan (Mary)

McElveen, Terry (Roslyn) McElveen, Donald (Glennis) McElveen; a daughter Pamela McElveen-Goodman; nine grandchildren: Brittney, Marquetta, Donquille, Quinten, Joey, Donte (Casie) McElveen, Jaquwnya, Donovan and Serman Goodman, Jr.; eight grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Cemetery Details

St. Mark Cemetery

Olanta, SC

Previous Events

Funeral Service

MAR 10. 1:00 PM (ET)

St. Mark AME Church
12190 Lynches River Rd
Olanta, SC 29114

Tribute Wall

CC

“ Chip, Cathy, and Caroline purchased the Dreams From the Heart Bouquet for the family of Harvey McElveen Jr..

Chip, Cathy, and Caroline - March 05, 2024 at 08:50 PM

CC

“ Chip, Cathy, and Caroline planted a Memorial Tree in honor of Harvey McElveen.

Chip, Cathy, and Caroline - March 05, 2024 at 08:50 PM