

Helen Worley

February 6, 2023

Helen Brown Worley was born on May 27, 1938, in Florence County, South Carolina to the late Leslie and Ruth Aaron Brown. On February 6, 2023, God in His infinite wisdom called, and Helen answered his call to her heavenly home.

Helen received her education through the Florence County Public School System. She spent many of her early adult years living and working in Philadelphia. She was united in holy matrimony to the late James Worley and had one son through this union, Keith Worley.

Helen loved to engage in conversations with others and brought laughter and light wherever she went. Her presence was felt through everyone she met, and she never encountered a stranger. She was a fun-loving person, strong-willed, and determined.

Helen was preceded in death by her husband, James Worley, her son, Keith Worley; four sisters, Virginia Henry, Ruth White Brown, Alice Mae Brown Mixon and Bertha Brown Edwards Ingram; three brothers, Johnny Brown, Curtis Brown, and Bristow Brown.

Those who are left to cherish fond and precious memories are three sisters-in-law, Fannie Brown, Francis Brown, and Virginia Brown; a loving and caring niece, Samantha Lowery and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, devoted friends and loved ones.

Previous Events

Graveside Service

FEB 11. 11:00 AM (ET)

Chandler/St. John UMC Cemetery
4640 Narrow Paved Rd
Lynchburg, SC 29080