

Henrietta Albert

January 22, 2020

We paused today to pay tribute in celebration of the homegoing of a dear mother, sister, grandmother, great-grandmother and friend. Henrietta Prinedia Albert was born January 16, 1957 in Hartsville, South Carolina, a daughter of the late Mary Ellen Muldrow and the late James Edward Albert. She attended Lee County Public Schools and graduated with the Class of 1975. During her early years she worked for the Disability of Special Needs, as a Private Duty Caregiver, then went on to be a dedicated worker for Carolina Pines Medical Center for more than 15 years.

Ms. Albert loved everyone, but most of all she loved her family, especially her grandchildren. Her favorite hobby was spending time with family and getting out enjoying the scenery.

Surviving to cherish the loving memory of Henrietta Prinedia Albert include: her daughter Melissa Jones of Florence, SC; a son Derrick Albert of Spartanburg, SC; her sister, Twila (Stephen) Lowery of Hartsville, SC; a cousin that was like a brother Antonio McCall Sr. of Darlington, SC; her five grandchildren, TiKiera Blakney, Iyahni Jones, Shayne Albert, Santana Jones and Kayla Johnson; one great grand Melody Depugh; her aunts, Rosa Lee Beasley, Martha Peterson and Lou Ella Brown; one uncle T.J. McCall; a nephew Jermaine Wright; many cousins and very dear friends.
