

Herman Wingate

November 25, 2023

Herman Wingate was born on December 3, 1938, to the late Jackson and Sammie K. Wingate in Darlington County, South Carolina. He attended Oates Elementary School in Oates South Carolina and Spaulding High School in Lamar South Carolina.

Herman left South Carolina and went to New York City in 1957. He married his childhood sweetheart, Calotis Mixon, on December 24, 1959. To this union they were blessed with four girls: Charity, Cynthia, Carmen, and Debra.

While in New York, he worked as a truck driver for United Clock Corporation. After retiring from United Clock Corporation, he decided to go into business for himself, driving a taxicab. After driving a taxicab for many years, he utilized his gift of gab and social ability by working at a neighborhood bar on Flatbush Avenue in Brooklyn New York.

Herman attended Greater Faith Baptist Church, Bronx New York, under the leadership of Pastor Preston Wingate Sr. While a member of Greater Faith he served on the Trustee Board for several years.

Herman resided in Brooklyn, New York until May 2016 when he relocated with family to Florence South Carolina. Herman loved family and he was commonly referred to as Dot, Skip, Uncle Herman, Uncle Fred, Papa Joe, Pop, Granddaddy, and Dii.

Herman was preceded in death by his parents (Jackson & Sammie), five siblings (Ruth, Jay, Jackson, Preston, and William), his wife (Calotis) and one daughter (Charity).

He leaves to cherish his memories, siblings Wilhemina Coleman, Emily Mashack, Pernell (Beulah), Sammie Allen, and Kelly (Denise). One brother-in-law Otto (Mildred) Mixon and 4 sisters-in-law, Daisy Green, Gloria Mixon, Girlene Mixon and Helen Wingate. 3 Daughters, Cynthia, Carmen (Wilfred) Drakes and Debra. 7 Grandkids Nakeesha (Kenny) Rivers, Nathaniel, Charnetta (Troy) Williams, Zaria (DeMarquise), NyEmma, Darius, and Nathaniel. 9 Great grandkids Nory, Jaylin, Jay'Qwon, Jayda, Trenton, Titus, Tylin, DeCari and DeLani. Along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
