

Isiah Dickey

December 13, 2020

Isaiah was born to the late Eddie Dickey and Mazzie Kins Dickey on February 14, 1938. He dedicated his life to God at an early age. He joined St. Mark Freewill Baptist Church where he married Pecola Thompson and they were blessed to be married for 62 years. He then migrated to New York with a wife and two babies then later having two more. While in New York he joined New Tabernacle Baptist Church. There he served on the Usher Board and as chairman of the Trustee Board, he was also anointed as a Deacon. Then having raised his family he retired from Sheet Metal Sign Company and moved back home to South Carolina where he was able to spend a few years with his father and three siblings which have now preceded him in death along with his mother and two other siblings. He joined Center Baptist Church where he served as president of the gospel choir and as a Deacon. Those who will cherish his loving memories are: his wife, Pecola Dickey; two daughters Barbara (Robert) Williams and Patricia (Charles) Morris; two sons Osaiah (Susan) Dickey and Carl (Dana) Dickey; 7 grandchildren; 5 great grandchildren; one brother, Holland Dickey; many nieces nephews other family members friends.

Previous Events

Graveside Service

DEC 19. 12:00 PM (ET)

Hart # 2 Cemetery
Darlington, SC

Tribute Wall

RJ

“ Robin M. Jett-Williams lit a candle in memory of Isiah Dickey ”

Robin M. Jett-Williams - December 16, 2020 at 09:36 AM