“ Mr. Ellerbe always was and will have been such a kind-hearted, wise and wonderful neighbor of ours back in the day my family and I lived across from him and Mrs. Ellerbe. I would go over to visit them and have nice long meaningful conversations with him about our lives and life lessons in general and even History, which we both shared a passion for. But most importantly, both Mrs. Ellerbe and him were always there for me whenever I needed them whenever my parents were both at work and such lovely friends of ours. I'll also never forget the memories of Mrs. Ellerbe being such a wonderful baby-sitter for my kid brother and I when we were younger after getting off from school and how she always generously treated us to lunch or a outing somewhere fun before coming back home and to spend some quality with her and Mr. Ellerbe. May He both Rest in Peace as well as be fondly remembered by all of those who knew him too, praying for and always there for you too Mrs. Ellerbe!

“ My father figure, my uncle, my friend- I will miss our talks, your Ellerbe advice, talking to me about our family. Your love of football, and hanging out at your house when family came, and telling us what happened when you were young wanting us to learn your life lessons. My heart breaks for all of us, we are missing a piece of our history, our legacy. My heart hurts for Aunt Marie but don't worry we will take good care of her, the way our family has always taken care of each other.

“ My deepest sympathy to Aunt Marie, Maurice & his family, and the entire Ellerbe & Milo families . As well as the many people who loved uncle Leroy. He was a very friendly man , and he had such a beautiful spirit . He & Aunt Marie had the same laugh , and we would get some good laughs in . Aunt Marie said that , I was her little girl ever since 1964 , and she adopted me . I would miss her so much because, she got married, and moved to Detroit Michigan. When they retired and moved back to Florence SC I adopted uncle Leroy as my uncle. May he rest in peace ❤️👉❤️👉❤️👉🙏🙏🙏

Mrs. Marie Milo Ellerbe, you are in my prayers, just found out a few minutes ago of the passing of your husband. I remembered the kindness, comforting words, embrace, and understanding you gave me when my beloved, devoted, and loving husband passed away. It is my time to show you this love and support. I hope to pay my condolences in person very soon. I love you, the Milo/ Ellerbe, prayer for God to comfort and and strengthen you in the days ahead. Rev. Shelby O'Neal Smith (Ray Smith) deceased.
