

Deacon James Henry McAllister

December 16, 2021

Deacon Henry James McAllister was born on October 3, 1948, in Timmonsville, South Carolina to the late Mr. Willie McAllister and Mrs. Miona McFadden McAllister.

Deacon McAllister celebrated 43 years of holy matrimony to his late beloved wife, Mrs. Irene Diane Benjamin McAllister. Their union was blessed with one daughter and two sons.

Deacon McAllister have his life to Christ at an early age at Macedonia Holiness Church in Timmonsville, South Carolina. He served on many organizations and was an active Deacon. He was a member of various choirs, and he loved the Lord. He worked for over 35 years in the manufacturing industry and served both his family and community very well. He was family oriented and whenever he was around, there was never a dull moment. His presence brought joy to his family and friends. He never met a stranger, whoever he met, he treated them as family. To know him was to love him. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by devoted wife, his son Timothy McAllister; six siblings, Malissie Collins, James M. McAllister, John C. McAllister, Willie Mae McAllister, and Annie Ruth Simon.

He leaves to cherish his precious memories: one daughter Iris (Clayton) McCray of Lynchburg, South Carolina; a son James Anthony (Loretta) McAllister of Socastee, South Carolina; nine grandchildren; fifteen great grandchildren; his siblings, Everlina (Willie) Durant, Curtis (Annette) McAllister, Patricia (Robert) Hyman, Jeffrey (Janet) Benjamin, Curlee

(Patricia) Benjamin, Margaret Brown, all of Timmonsville, South Carolina, Pastor Levern (Pastor Joyce) McAllister of West Hempstead, New York, Christina McAllister of Columbia, South Carolina and Al (Alizia) Benjamin of Birmingham, Alabama; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and close friends and a special friend, Francine.

Deacon Henry James McAllister will truly be missed.
