

Janice Marie Little

February 23, 2021

Janice Marie Little had a vibrant and beautiful life. Janice was a happy, loving, funny, and outgoing person who made a positive and remarkable impact on the lives of people around her. Janice will always be remembered for her sense of humor, honesty, loyalty and good sense of style.

Janice Marie Little was born January 24, 1968 to Carolyn and the late Prentis Little Sr. at Barnett Hospital in Paterson, New Jersey. She was the youngest child born to her parents.

Janice attended primary school in Paterson Chama New Jersey and later moved to High Point, North Carolina where she graduated high school. Janice was a dedicated and loyal employee at Blue Cross Blue Shield for a total of 25 years, she then went on to fulfill and accomplish a dream of her own by creating her own business "Pillows of Strength". She went back to school and received her associate degree in health information management at Florence-Darlington Technical College. Janice allowed God to be the pilot of her life early on. She was saved and baptized at her grandfather's church, 2nd United Holiness in Paterson, New Jersey. Here in Florence she continued her faith with True Faith Fellowship Church. She loved the Lord with all her heart and worshipped him daily. Janice was not shy to spread His word or sing his praises. She also never lost faith, even on her darkest days she gave praises. Janice was preceded in death by her siblings Debra, Darrell, and Prentis Jr., and her stepfather Cody Green.

Janice leaves to cherish her memories: her mother, Carolyn Green; two daughters, Symira Little and Sabrina Outler; one granddaughter Zaniya Green; one sister Sabrina Sadler; two aunts, Betty Glenn and Barbara (Leslie) Bussie; one uncle James Little; two sisters-in-law, Sonya Little and Cotrina Williams; a special niece Shanijah Williams and a host of nieces, nephews and cousins.
