

Lt. John Stewart

November 30, 1972 - September 17, 2021

Remembering the Life and Legacy of Lieutenant John Stewart

On Friday, September 17, 2021, the world lost a hero. Lieutenant John Stewart, 48, born on November 30, 1972, in Bronx, New York gave the ultimate sacrifice. John lost his life in the line of duty while upholding his oath to protect and serve the community of Lake City, SC. He is remembered as an amazing storyteller, for his love of service, community, and family. John was a beloved son, father, brother, uncle, and friend.

Lieutenant Stewart graduated from Willingboro High School in Willingboro, New Jersey. He served in the United States Marine Corps and then graduated from the South Carolina Police Academy. He served several police agencies within his twenty-one years of service. In the last 13 years, he proudly served the community of Lake City, SC.

A pillar of strength, you could always rely on John when you needed him most. He was a light in the darkest of times and a hero to all who knew him. He was a compassionate man with a lot of love for the people around him.

With his extraordinary charm and genuine smile, John never failed to make a lasting impression anywhere he went. John was an honest man, showing respect to everyone he met and exhibiting patience to all those in his life and line of work. He was strongly devoted to his family, valuing every moment he spent making memories.

He is survived by: his sons, Private Nicholas Stewart of Ft. Humphrey, Korea and Tayshaun Stewart of SC; his siblings Patricia (Reggie Sr.) White of NJ, Elaine Stewart of NY, Sharon Whitehead of GA, Henry Goodman of NJ, Diane Stewart of GA, William R. Stewart Jr. (Deitra) and Theresa (Steven) Tindal of SC; a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

He was the son of the late William and Claretha Stewart and is preceded by his brother Jimmy Goodman.

His legacy is uniquely rich and will not be forgotten.

“ When came to the City of Lake City, I asked some of the ladies, "Who is that?" He was such a big guy and his presence demanded respect. As I got to know him, I respected him because of his humble spirit, his love to get the job done and his love for the community of Lake City, South Carolina. Rest on Lt. John Stewart.
