

Mrs. Lannie Mae Taylor

February 2, 2020

Our Heavenly Father, on Sunday, February 2, 2020, called from her life in labor here on earth to an everlasting home the soul of our be-loved one, Lannie Mae Miller Taylor. Death rode quietly on a heavenly chariot for Sister Taylor at the Carolina Hospital System, Florence, South Carolina.

Born in Timmonsville, South Carolina on March 27, 1950, she was the daughter of the late Mr. Lannie Miller, Sr. and the late Mrs. Flowreen Miller.

She was educated in the Public School System of Florence and Darlington Counties. She was employed as a domestic for most of her adult life.

Providing service to everyone with a beautiful smile and a wonderful zest for life. She was a member of Bread of Life Ministries.

The love of her children gave her strength, but the joy she received from her grandchildren and great grandchildren blessed her heart. She affectionately loved and raised many children, whom she treated as her very own.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Lannie Miller, Sr. and Flowreen Miler; her husband, Ike Taylor; two brothers, Lannie Miller, Jr. and James Miller; four sisters, Margaret Samuel, Deloris Miller, Mary Harrell and Marie McCain.

Loving memories will be cherished by: her children, Teresa (Shelby) McCray, Yvonne (James) Windham, Tarsha (Kevin) Windham, LaTonya Peterson and MyAsia Windham, all of Lamar, SC; one sister, Martha (Bishop Huey) Coleman of Timmonsville, SC; one brother, Levi (Hattie) Miller of Lamar, SC; twelve grandchildren; seven great-grandchildren; three very special friends,

Elousie Mack, Dianne Fortune and Virginia Martin; sisters-in-law, brothers-in-law, a host of
