

Leroy James

February 23, 2023

Mr. Leroy 'Roy' James was born in Florence County on February 4, 1948, to the late Mr. Evans James and the late Mrs. Eleanor Parker James. He departed his earthly life on Thursday, February 23, 2023, at MUSC Hospital in Florence.

Roy attended the public schools of Timmonsville, South Carolina.

Roy was a member of the Zion Temple Holiness Church but attended the Mount Carmel Baptist Church with his wife.

Roy loved life and lived it to the fullest. He enjoyed spending time with family and friends.

Roy was employed with Shaw Lumber Company and retired after 40 years.

Roy was married to Sallie Williams.

Roy was preceded in death by his parents, and seven siblings.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his wife, Sallie Williams James; a son Corey James (Sheena); his granddaughter, the apple of his eye, Princess Peyton Ivy James, who he called his chocolate bunny; his best friend who he loved as a son, Mr. Kenny Eaddy; three daughters, Darlene, Van, and Teresa; a number of grandchildren; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and many friends.

The family is receiving friends at 1315 Highlander Court, Florence, S.C.

“ So sorry for this loss. Will miss so much looking over at you cutting your grass and times you pulling out with your truck waving with that friendly smile. Go rest high on that mountain. You will be missed.

“ Sally, So very sorry for the loss of Roy. Bo and I will miss him so much. He had such a kind and gentle spirit about him. A good neighbor, always willing to give a helping hand. I will miss being yard buddies when we worked in the yard. There is an empty place in our hearts. Prayers for you and the family.
