

Levi Miller

January 8, 2025

Deacon Levi Miller, affectionately known as “Brother”, was born in Timmonsville, South Carolina on November 9, 1945, to the late Lannie and Floreen Green Miller. He was called to his eternal home on Tuesday, January 8, 2025.

Levi was educated in the Darlington and Florence Counties school system. He retired from Builders First Source as a salesman and contractor for over 30 years. Levi was a faithful member of St. Mark Freewill Baptist Church where he served as a Deacon. He was also a member of the Joyette and Senior Choir and the John Stock Lodge #97. He was married to the late Hattie Lyde Miller for 62 years. He was a loving husband, devoted dad, and granddad. Levi fought the good fight and kept the faith until he was called to his eternal resting place.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his wife, Hattie; a son, Mark Anthony; two brothers, Lonnie Miller, Jr., and James Miller; a host of sisters, Margaret Taylor, Delores Miller, Mary Harrell, Lizzie Samuel, Lonnie Mae Taylor, Martha Coleman, and Marie McCain.

Levi leaves to cherish his precious memories: two daughters, Lora Thomas of the home and Willet (Dale) Drakeford of Lamar, South Carolina, a daughter-in-law Teresa Miller of Rock Hill, South Carolina; four sisters-in-law, Lula Hudson, Elizabeth Sumter of Lamar, South Carolina, Ronnie Lyde of Florence, South Carolina, and Evelyn Dixon of New York; A dear friend Patricia Hyman of Timmonsville, South Carolina; 11 grandchildren; 6 great-grandchildren; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and dear friends.

“ My condolences to the Miller Family ... Their family, and my late grandparents. Martha Coleman Mckithen, and Johnny Mckithen were next door neighbors . When I was born , Mr. Levi’s mother assisted the Dr. in my delivery. So she was my Godmother, Mrs. Florine Miller was her name. My grandmother’s favorite 1st cousin T.J. Samuel would visit our house, and he fell in love with Mr. Levi’s sister, the late Cousin Lizzie Mae Miller Samuel. They married and had three beautiful girls. My Prayers are for spiritual healing ❤️☐❤️☐ f❤️☐ for this family in Jesus name. Rest in peace Mr.Levi Miller

Our family was blessed to have the Millers as our neighbors. They were wonderful people and great friends of my parents. We truly loved them and we knew that they loved us. Mr. Levi, was to me, a gentle giant and allowed his actions and service to speak for him.

Sending our sincere love and prayers to Brenda, Willette and the family.

Love,
