

Linda Faye Ford

July 27, 2022

Early in the morning of July 27, 2022, God called Linda Faye Ford home. She was affectionately called Mommy by her children; Granny by her three special granddaughters (Kierston Madison and Alexis), and Punkie by all that grew up with her in the Sardis community.

Linda was born in Florence County on November 13, 1948, to the late Wendell and Mary Lois Mack. At an early age Linda joined St. Luke United Methodist Church.

Linda was a strong woman who loved the Lord, her children and her siblings. She did not mind helping anyone in need and would give without hesitation to anyone that asked.

Linda was preceded in death by her husband of 28 years, James Jerome Ford; her eldest son John Christopher; two special sisters Valerie and Bertha; and one brother Willie.

Those who share the joy of her life and survive to cherish her memory are: three daughters, Patricia (Sammie) Payne of Jersey City, New Jersey, Sonia (Terrance) Johnson of Florence, South Carolina and Crystal Ford of Epworth, Georgia; two sons, Gregory Dickey of Wilkes - Barre, Pennsylvania and Wendell (Mary) Ford of Mooresville, North Carolina; eight siblings, Maddie (Cleveland) Lofton, Cassie Lowery, Peggy Jones, Syntear (Howard) Hill, Gary Mack, Quincy Mack, Harold (Amy) Mack and Jeffrey Mack.

Linda will be missed by a host of relatives, grandchildren, great grandchildren, and friends that loved her dearly.
