

Lois McGill Brown

February 19, 2023

Lois M. Brown graced the world with her presence on June 6, 1950 in Sumter County to the late Willie McGill and Evangelist Christine McGill.

On Sunday February 19, 2023, the trumpets sounded, and she ascended to join the angels in heaven.

Lois attended school in Sumter County and held various employment titles, but her gifted craft was sewing. She was a seamstress at heart.

Lois was a woman of Great Faith, and she accepted Christ a very early age. She exemplified the example of a true Christian woman through her various acts of kindness towards the people in the community. Though she wore many titles, no one would ever compare to the titles of Mother and Grandmother. Her children and grandchildren were her pride and joy, and this Diva grandmother made sure that everyone knew.

Lois was also a great singer. There was hardly ever a time where you would not have caught her listening to her gospel music and singing. She sang with several groups and choirs in the community and had a voice that was almost as beautiful as her soul. Though she loved to sing, another great hobby of hers was watching wrestling. You could catch her almost every weekday night waiting for the Wrestling to come on.

Lois was preceded in death by her first husband Eddie J. Green. In later years she was also preceded in death by her second husband Edward Brown Jr. She leaves to cherish her memory five children; Randy (Kathy) McGill, Mae (Nathan) Epps, Eddie Green Jr., Willie (Mary) Green, and Cynthia (Jeremiah)

McDowell; six siblings, Jefferson (Marilyn) McGill, Jackie McGill, Leroy (Kim) McGill, Linda (Andrew) McFadden, Brian (Michelle) McGill and Ada McGill; two sisters in law, Annie Ruth McGill and Mary McGill; sixteen grandchildren; fourteen Great Grandchildren; a host of special nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
