

Mary Lee Gillard

August 20, 2021

Mary Lee Gillard entered this world chosen of God to become a valuable servant in His garden on February 1, 1923 in Lee County to the proud parents of the late Morgan Williams and Hattie Bradley Williams.

A Time to Grow

Mary was educated in the public schools of Lee County. In her youth she joined the Church of God by Faith Inc. Later in life she joined Christ Temple Holiness Church of Timmons ville, South Carolina.

A Time to Love

Mary was joined in holy matrimony to Jeffell Gilyard. She was a devoted wife, mother, daughter, sister, grandmother, aunt and special friend to many. She possessed the ability to love unconditionally and there was always room in her heart to add another loved one to her family. She was preceded in death by: all her brothers and sisters; three daughters, Gertie Mae (Edward) Nelson, Hattie (Willie) Jacobs and Shirley (Freddie) Bines; four sons, Johnny Gilyard, George Gilyard, Ernest Gilyard and Freddie Gilyard.

A Time to Remember

Mary leaves to cherish her loving memories: two daughters, Dorothy Pompey of Timmons ville, South Carolina and Rosa Price of Florence, South Carolina; one daughter-in-law, Peggy Gilyard of Timmons ville, South Carolina; two grandsons she called her sons, Charles Gaillard of Timmons ville, South Carolina and Freddie (Daresa) Gilyard of Myrtle Beach, South Carolina; one sister-in-law, Cassie Mae (Skeeters) Gilliard Kelly of Pompano Beach, Florida;

a host of nieces, nephews, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great - great grandchildren.
