

Mary Hill

May 16, 2022

Mary Hill, daughter of the late Edith Mae Dixon Sims and George Sims was born on January 20, 1939. She died peacefully at home on May 16, 2022. Affectionately known to her family and friends as “Coot”. She attended Brockington High School. After high school she moved to Plainfield, New Jersey and married her high school sweetheart Robert Lee Damon, a union of eight years.

While in Plainfield, she worked for 20 years with Lyons VA hospital in housekeeping. She later moved to Adel, Georgia and became a loving foster parent and caregiver of some of her grandchildren. In her spare time she enjoyed soap operas, shopping and fishing. She later returned home to Timmonsville, where she reunited with family and friends. Where she found a church home with Timmonsville Church of Christ. She was a very active member until the decline of her health.

Mary was preceded in death by seven brothers, Albert Dixon, Eddie Sims, James Sims, Theo Sims, Leo Sims, Brooks Sims, Willie Sims, and Sylvester Sims, three sisters, Minnie Dixon Goodman, Annie Mae Sims and Olivia Sims, along with one son in law, Robert Coe.

Surviving to cherish her memories are: her children Russell Damon of Adel, Georgia, Roberta Damon Coe of Timmonsville, South Carolina, Robbye Damon of Darlington, South Carolina, and Evelyn Dukes Suggs of Timmonsville, South Carolina; two grandchildren she raised, Leewon (Jessica) Damon of Dillon, South Carolina and Yashen (Shnette) Damon of Florence,

South Carolina; one brother, Jimmy Sims of Timmonsville, South Carolina; three aunts, Lorena Mickens of Brooklyn, New York, Marian Dixon and Virginia Eaddy; fourteen grandchildren; twenty two great grandchildren; many loving nieces, nephews, a host of other relatives and friends.
