It is still hard to believe that my friend is not here. I will miss seeing her smile and having conversations with her about our kids playing sports. “ I spent a few years working alongside Mickey at Footaction. Back then, I was a young high schooler who looked up to all of the older people I worked with. She worked hard and loved even harder. I will always remember her smile, her laugh and her fierce way of showing love. You will surely be missed and God keep your children and family during this moment and for the years to come.

“ Life is fuller because I had the pleasure to teach, know, and love Mickey and the honor to watch her grow into a strong young lady and a loving and caring mother. When Mickey was in high school, she received the Time Warner Star Student for overcoming adversity and preserving. Left to her own devices, Mickey always overcame! She conquered the world with her warmth and smile that she freely shared with all of us. Through the years, Mickey and I seemed to run into each other at exactly the time the other needed it. Mickey always had a lot to talk about and the biggest smile to share. In our last conversation, she smiled when she talked about the children, and she shared that she enjoyed work because it was quiet. My sweet girl, I hope you find your quiet place so that you can guide all of us in preserving your memory with the smile and determination that you lived. Thank you for everything you taught us!

Zay, all my love to you and the sweet babies!
