“ I met Miss Jackson September 1980 when I was a new nurse. She was the ANCC on the night shift. She taught me so much. She was so smart, caring, compassionate and kind....and sometimes blunt!! We became friends quickly. She even came to my wedding in 1985. I spoke to her weekly until about 4(?) years ago when she went into the hospital in DC. When I called the hospital, they wouldn't let me speak to her and then would not tell me where she was going afterwards. When she couldn't get anyone to get her medicine, I was able to get it at a pharmacy in NYC and mail it to her. I'm sorry I couldn't get to say good-bye and tell her how much I valued our friendship....even though it was only by phone. I am sure she is resting peacefully in Jesus' arms. I will miss her. My condolences to her family.

May you find comfort in knowing you are not alone, you are surrounded by those who love and care for you.
May God's grace, mercy and peace comfort you during this time of grief.
