

Nellie C. McCullough

March 28, 2021

Nellie McCullough was born on June 9, 1927 to the late Frances Keith and Sydney Johnson. She peacefully transitioned in her home surrounded by love on Palm Sunday, March 28, 2021. Nell, as she preferred to be called, grew up in Timmonsville, SC with seven siblings who preceded her: Ruth Henry, Sidney Johnson, Rosa Mae McFadden, James Johnson, Euley Johnson, Magnolia Williams and Edith Johnson.

Shortly after her graduation from Timmonsville High School. Nell was united in holy matrimony to the late Levance McCullough, Sr. in 1949. They lived a blessed life together for 47 years raising a beautiful family on their family land in Effingham, SC where she passed as she wished in the family home. She was a member of Effingham Baptist Church and an active volunteer for several years at Carolina Medical Center where she cared for others well into her mid-80s.

For anyone who knew her knew she was most proud of her family. It was indeed her greatest accomplishment. Every daughter and daughter-in-law, every son and son-in-law, every grandchild and great grandchild, every high school and college graduation, every new job or business, every new house or car...every single dream fulfilled by her and her late husband's sacrifice were her greatest accomplishments and she wore them proudly.

Nell left her family with 93 years of legacy that is cherished with every memorable holiday or occasion shared together. She raised a strong, close-knit family that will live on in her beloved memory: three sons Levance

McCullough, Jr., Arthur McCullough and Jerry McCullough; two devoted daughters Priscilla Ingram and Hazel McCullough Hill; one daughter-in-law Martha McCullough; two sons-in-law James Ingram and Alfred Hill; nine grandchildren Bernard McCullough, Stephanie McCullough, Lamecia Eaddy, Rukiya Thomas, Demetria Aldridge (Terry), Tiffany Yeldell (Kevin), Omari Crump, Kimberly McCullough and Patrick McCullough; great grandchildren include Jaylum Adkins, Gabrielle Pittman, Omari Crump, Jr. and Elle Victoria Thomas; a host of nieces, nephews and a community of friends and loved ones near and far.
