

Pearlina Johnson

February 1, 2023

Pearline Johnson, a loving mother of three and the wife of Charles Johnson was born in 1954 in Timmonsville, South Carolina to the late Josephine ‘Sue Baby’ Evans- Brown and Ashton Brown. She departed this earthly life on February 1, 2023 after a courageous battle with kidney failure.

Pearline grew up the oldest of five siblings, with a host of aunts and uncles. She was influenced by her family to be a loving and caring woman helping whomever she could. She loved to cook go fishing and somehow incorporated all this into her motherhood. Though Pearlina’s health was failing for years few people knew the extent to which she struggled. Her joy for her life and indomitable spirit kept her pushing through the pain. Her passion for serving led her to do monumental things with limited resources. Pearlina had a passion for fishing and you could always catch her by a fish pond. Pearlina was a caring and loving person who spent all of her life thinking about her family as well as others. She loved to throw parties just to surround herself around her family and friends which is where she felt most comfortable and loved.

Pearlina is survived by: her husband, Charles Johnson; three children, Laki Johnson, of Miami, FL, Rita Johnson of Effingham, South Carolina and Charles Johnson of Chesterfield, South Carolina; one brother, Aston Brown of Lakeland, Florida; eight grandchildren: Jabray Johnson, Darvion Johnson, Jeremiah Johnson, Nasir Johnson, Jeremiah Johnson, Jayden Rose, Kali Rose, and Amir Hamilton; one dear person, Mary Frances Johnson; host of other relatives and friends.

Sister Johnson, Pastor Scott and I will forever miss you. You had a big heart of gold and always caring about more than self. This is what God is looking for. I challenge the family to continue in your footsteps. You was one of my best and we had a good relationship. Sleep on, we will all meet again. Pastor Willie and Sister Katherine R. Scott
