“ To know Ms.Virginia Bo. Eaddy was to truly love her . I can remember her ever since I was a little girl. Down at the family church New Zion Baptist Church # 1 in Sardis. She was working, ushering , cooking, and always keeping a watchful eye on children . As children we always saw the older people who was concerned about your wellness as being mean . We didn't know any better. Ms.Bo would always tell the girls about wearing short dresses. She didn't care about you liking her or not. She was only concerned about teaching young girls to be ladylike, and the boys to be gentlemen. As I became an adult, I began to really love , and appreciate Ms.Bo . She hadn't changed! I just learned from her examples. She could also give you a good laugh too !. She was a favorite of my family. The world needs more grandmother figures like Ms.Bo . She treated all children as her ,children, and grandchildren. Ms.Bo was so beautiful, she was faithful to God her family , and the New Zion Baptist church . She wasn't weary in well doing . She was a real trooper She was faithful to the end . This is the last time that I visited her at her home . My mom Agnes McKithen James, and my sister JohnnieMae James enjoyed her so much on that day. She was still the queen, and the boss of her house. RIP 🌸🌸🌻🌹 Ms.Virginia Bo.Eaddy You've done well !!!🥰🥰🥰
