“Dad I love you so much. I wish I could of took the time out to make sure you had regular doctor checkups when nobody was by your side. All the times you came to Fayetteville to spend time with me and your grandkids as much as you could. Even when the times were hard, you stood by our side and we made a way. All the time you rode with me to Washington DC to prevent anything happening to me and your granddaughter. I'm gonna miss you so much and I'm so glad, I forgave you for not being a part of my childhood and took the time to find you myself and get that mother father bonding love. You are my mom's first love and last. Regardless a marriage don't make you in love just some paperwork to bind you in a way. I know where your real love laid in your heart. I'm so happy you created me and I am your 1st eldest daughter. So glad you gave me your last name and I'm gonna wear that on my heart forever. I love you so much and for you I will try to stay calm during the funeral because people that you claim to love really did me dirty at your last breath and I will never respect or forgive sandra again.
